

Voluntary Position – TREC GB Young Rider/Junior Duo Team Chef d' Equipe

On behalf of TREC GB, the International Riders' Working Group (IRWG) is seeking to appoint a Young Rider/Junior Duo Chef d' Equipe.

Appointment of the Young Rider/Junior Duo Chef will be carried out by a formal group approved by the IRWG, consisting of the Chair of the IRWG; the YR/JD representative on the IRWG; an experienced International Rider and one other member of the IRWG (member to be confirmed). In the event of a 'tied vote' the Chair of the IRWG will have the casting vote. (The views of currently registered Young and Junior Duo Riders and their parents/guardians will be sought to help support the appointment process).

The successful applicant will hold the position for two International seasons – Young Rider/Junior Duo FITE Championships in 2024 and in 2025.

Candidates interested in the voluntary position are required to have a recent, clear DBS check. If a candidate cannot present appropriate evidence to confirm a recent, clear DBS check, then TREC GB will request a check on the candidate's behalf.

Candidates should have recently completed appropriate Safeguarding Training and be able to provide evidence to support this.

Candidates will be required to possess appropriate Insurance for instructing riders and horses. If suitable Insurance is not held, then a policy can be put in place via TREC GB's underwriters, at the candidate's expense.

Expressions of interest should be emailed to Cheryl McLardy (IRWG YR/JD Representative) at chezwil@gmail.com in the first instance.

Individuals expressing an interest in the post should include a brief indication of their TREC experience and reasons for applying for the post with reference to the Job Description below.

Closing date for applications is 10th October 2023.

The successful applicant will be informed as soon as possible after the closing date.
